

Travel

1947

Australia

After BPs death, Lady BP was determined to keep travelling to continue the work she and BP had dedicated their lives to.

She travelled tirelessly to many country areas to see the wide spread of the Movement and its huge growth since her last visit.

During this trip she invented her famous "two at a time" handshake - her main aim was always to "not disappoint the children".

In Western Australia she opened the campsite Seaward.

1947 Brisbane

1948
Wollongong,
Queensland

